Lieut. David Ruddall, to be Private Secretary to the Honorable the Lieutenant Governor

C. ASSEY,
Sec. to Government.

BATAVIA, the 12th March, 1816.

The Honorable Company's ship James Sibbald, arrived in the Roads yesterday afternoon from Bengal, having on board JOHN FENDALL, Esq. appointed by the Supreme Government to succeed the Hon'ble T. S. RAFFLES, in the high office of Lieut. Governor of Java and its Dependencies.

His Excellency landed this morning under the customary salute, and was received at the Wharf by the Commander of the Forces, the Members of Council, the chief Civil and Military Officers, and a number of the principal Inhabitants of the Settlement.

His Excellency proceeded direct to the Government House, Ryswick, escorted by the corps of Hussars, where he was received by the Honorable the Lieutenant Governor, the troops of the Garrison being drawn out to pay the honors due to his rank.

A public breakfast was prepared on the occasion, and immediately afterwards Mr. FENDALL, took the usual oaths and his seat as Lieut. Governor under a salute from the battery in the cantonment of Weltevreden.

At the same time THOMAS ABRAHAM Esq. appointed to succeed Mr. HOPE, took the oaths and his seat as second member of Council.

We are happy to add, that Mrs. FENDALL and Family have accompanied His Excellency.

The only article of intelligence which we have received by this opportunity, is, the recommencement of hostilities against the Goorkahs by the Force under Sir David Ochterlony.
